BASKETEERS TRIM ROCHESTER, 34-24

Hamilton's Favor 18-12 at Half Time —Callaghan Troubles Buff and Blue—Garner Stars

After sustaining two consecutive defeats at the hands of R. P. I. and Colgate, the Buff and Blue basketball team opened up on Rochester last Friday night and immersed the Yellow and Black beneath a final margin of ten points . The score at the end of the contest was 34-24.

Let this imposing score, however, beguile no one into thinking that the varsity had an easy time with the men from the Flower City. Far from it, for even a ten or twelve point lead made it unsafe for the Buff and Blue to take things easy. The game was hard-fought throughout and miniature "goose piles" were frequent. But despite the strong leanings toward roughness and horse-play, the brand of basketball was all that could be wished for.

Kirchmaier began the scoring with a foul shot. A field basket gave Rochester a lead of three points before Hamilton had been able to launch her attack. She was not long in doing this, however, and within the first ten minutes of play, both teams battled in a see-saw attack and defense with the score tied. In the final minutes of the first half, a steady plugging at the Rochester basket by the varsity enabled the scorers to announce a half-time score of 18-12, on the wee end of which was Rochester. At the outset of the next period came a fierce assault of the Hamilton defense which made the College heart palpitate with anxiety, but the varsity weathered the storm beautifully to the huge delight of its supporters, and from thenceforth her attack grew irresistible and her defense rock-bound. Rochester's frantic attempts at long shots gave the crowd a scare at times but usually their offensive terminated where it began.

The brilliant pass work of the Buff and Blue in the latter half was the undoing of her opponent. Too much praise cannot be ascribed to Garner whose remarkable passing and shooting vied with the best that Soper Gym has ever witnessed. Five almost impossible shots and a scoreless opponent tells part of the story. No honor must be denied the rest of the team. Doane and Hatch each got away for three field goals. Hamilton and McGiffin did creditable work on both offensive and defensive, the latter dropping in 50 per cent of twelve free

Debate Schedule and Fencing Meet with West Point Other Matters Approved by Council

A meeting of the Executive Council was held on Thursday, Jan. 18th. In opening the business, L. E. Moore, '24, was elected secretary, and the senior ex-members of the Council were invited to attend, ex officio, the remaining meetings during the year.

A Debate schedule for the year, presented by Manager Yates, was approved. Yates also outlined his plans for the coming Musical Club season, and received the approval of the Council. An appropriation of $45.00 was voted to pay for the recently purchased bass horn, the sum to come out of the regular apportionment for the Clubs.

L. George, '23, asked that his hockey apportionment of $3,069 be raised to $3,200, in order to provide extra equipment for the team. This was approved, as were proposals that gloves be purchased for the varsity squad, and that the Council pay 40 per cent of the cost of the sticks. Manager George reported that the finances of his department were in very good shape.

Ogilvie, '24, reported a fencing meet with West Point, scheduled for Feb. 10th, which received the confirmation of the Council. He stated that there was much difficulty in obtaining meets, both because of a lack of financial assistance, and because Hamilton is a newcomer in the league this year.

V. Alison, manager of Intramural Sports, reported an expenditure of $284.47 for the last tennis season, and $595.29 for soccer during the fall, leaving a surplus in the Intramural department of $131.84. He presented a tentative schedule of seven tennis matches for the Spring and two soccer games for next Fall, receiving approval.

J. Howe, '24, asked for an apportionment for freshman hockey of $335. A large tentative schedule was approved, since the varsity plays so few home games this year. The policy of charging admission to freshman games was approved.

In discussing the football schedule for 1923 it was reported that games at Clinton with Alfred and Haverford had had to be cancelled due to misunderstanding. Efforts are being made to fill the two dates thus left open.

Matters pertaining to the college store were discussed, and it was decided to publish the history and aims of the organization.

Coach Prettyman was authorized to spend the money necessary to reorganize the filing system in the managers' office.

The plans for revising the constitution of the Undergraduate Association were discussed, and it was decided to publish a copy of the constitution, with its proposed amendments.

EDITING OF BLUEBOOK TO CHANGE HANDS

Publication Board to Relieve Y. M. C. A. of This Expense—New Policy Adopted

At a joint meeting of Pentagon Society and the Publication Board, called by Richard S. Fowler, '23, of Pentagon, last week, it was decided to plan for a new freshman handbook to take the place of the Bluebook, issued annually heretofore by the College Y. M. C. A..

The opinion was expressed by those present that the handbook Hamilton has been offering its freshmen has hardly been worthy of a college of its standing. Freshman handbooks from other colleges were inspected, and the policies these colleges have adopted were discussed.

Members of Pentagon expressed the opinion that the editing of the book properly belongs to the Publication Board, because of the fact that the Y. M. C. A., through lack of funds, has been unable to put out a book of the proper size and quality.

J. Lester Albertson, Donald Jones, and William W. Johnson, Junior members of the Publication Board, were appointed by John K. Willard, '23, Chairman of the Publication Board, to serve on a committee to investigate into the cost of a more elaborate handbook than has been published heretofore.

The plan is to put out a book seven by two and one-half inches, bound in limp leather, and containing about 150 pages. The material will be similar to that in the present Bluebook, but with the addition of matter of a more interesting nature. The book will be sold for the price of fifty cents. Each freshman will be compelled to carry a copy with him during the first few weeks of the Fall term.

The book will be financed by its sale as far as possible. If it is found necessary to solicit advertising, that will be done. However, it is the opinion of the business managers of various publications on the Hill, that solicitation of advertising for the freshman book should be avoided. Various plans were presented for financing it.

The first edition will go to press in June and will appear on the first day of College next Fall. The editors will be Junior members of the Publication Board.

HON. D. W. VAN HOESEN, '86, DIES IN IDAHO

The death of the Hon. David W. Van Hoesen, '86, occurred suddenly on Jan. 15th at Boise, Idaho, where he was attending a special session of the state legislature. Death was due to heart failure. Mr. Van Hoesen had spent most of his life in Cortland, N. Y., where he practiced law. During 1898-99 he represented Cortland County in the State Assembly.

Later Mr. Van Hoesen moved to Mesa, Idaho, where he entered into the fruit growing industry, acquiring several large orchards. He was elected to the State Senate of Idaho, and was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention of 1920.

Interment of the body will be made in the Cortland Cemetery.

Mr. Van Hoesen was a member of the Emerson Literary Society. He is survived by his wife and one son, M. G. Van Hoesen, '23.

PRINCETON DOWNS SKATERS, 10-2

Hamilton First Team to Score Twice Against Tigers—First Period Close —Fast Game Throughout

The Buff and Blue hockey team was forced to bow in defeat before the strongest opposition it has met this year when it lost to the fast and heavy Princeton aggregation at Princeton last Saturday. Although the score resulted 10 to 2 in favor of Princeton, it by no means indicates the real character of the game, which Princeton men said was the fastest yet seen on the Princeton ice this year. Hamilton is the only team this season to score more than one goal against the Tiger skaters. This marks the sixth straight victory for Princeton on the rink.

The game was played on the Hobart Baker Memorial Rink, of artificial ice and about the same size as our Russell Sage Athletic Building. The contest was very speedy and fiercely fought. The Princeton team displayed better team work than did Dartmouth in the latter's contest against the Buff and Blue, but their defense did not seem as close. The Princeton defense consisted in lining the five forward players across the ice in front of the goal, forming a wall which the Hamilton skaters found difficult to penetrate. Their three man offense was very effective, forming a passing and shooting combination such as the Buff and Blue has not been subjected to in practice. The Hamilton offensive was good, and the defense did very good work until the final period when the effects of the long trip began to tell on the players.

The first period opened with both teams fighting hard to score. Many shots were aimed at the goals of each side but the defensive work in this period was so good that but one score was made. This came when Princeton by a sharp rally brought the puck down to within shooting distance of the Hamilton goal and Brown secured a difficult side shot which Marks was unable to block. Both teams tightened up after this tally and the period ended 1 to 0 in favor of Princeton.

In the second period Princeton launched a stronger attack and by brilliant passing and teamwork succeeded in getting four more shots into the Hamilton net. In this period several second string men were put in the game by the Tigers, but the Buff and Blue pressed them so hard that they were forced to retire in favor of the varsity players. Toward the end of the third, Hamilton had Princeton Betting.

There has been much discussion of late about the question of betting. The most recent cause for the discussion of this rather personal question was the hockey game with Dartmouth.

To look at the question in a cold light for a moment, shows us that betting is nothing more than the commercializing of the ability of a team to make some pecuniary gain for individuals. Betting has been considered one of the prerogatives of a gentleman since time immemorial, and much has been said both for and against it. If betting could be limited to purely individual effects the harm done would be slight—but betting, unfortunately, has other effects.

One of the greatest evils that betting has is upon the teams that are the subject of wager. No team can do its best and play the cleanest sort of a game if it knows that there is a large sum of money up on the outcome of the contest. The psychological effect due to the knowledge that friends have wagered money upon their ability, produces nervousness and an anxiety that does not help the players to do their best in the game.

Another aspect of betting is that it often causes great financial embarrassment on the part of men who can ill afford to lose. There are many men in college who are here because of sacrifices that the folks at home are undergoing in order to give their boy an education. For such men to bet is the height of folly and poor sportsmanship; sad to say such men often make up the great bulk of the gamblers.

It would be well for the undergraduate body of Hamilton to see fit to stop the practice of betting on the teams that represent the Buff and Blue. It is all very well to show your faith in the team, but betting is not the best means of doing so. In betting one not only cheapens sportsmanship, but one also lays a price on the teams' ability. Why not leave betting, if there must be any, to those outsiders who can better afford to misspend their money, and let the teams that represent Hamilton enter the game with the idea of winning for the Buff and Blue and not for the personal aggrandizement of a few?

QUINTET LOSES TO COLGATE

Maroon Team Opens Superior Attack in Second Half and Wins by Score of 46 to 37

After being held almost to a standstill in the first half by the Hamilton basketeers, Colgate came back with an extra strong attack which could not be checked, and left the floor at the end of the game victorious. The game was played at Colgate on Wednesday of last week. Due to the inferior size of the court and also to the fact that Colgate resorted to long shots almost entirely, the Buff and Blue five was unable to get started at the beginning of the game and the Maroon team gained a big lead. Hamilton soon found itself and before the end of the half gave the opposing five a big surprise. But Hamilton was unable to sustain the attack in the last half and lost the game by a score of 46-37.

Captain Garner played his usual steady game at center, making his passes fast and sure. He caged three baskets from the field. Hamilton, besides holding his man to only one field goal, was able to cage three pretty shots himself. Marquard made three spectacular shots in the last ten minutes of play. Hatch made two goals from the field before he was taken out of the game and McGiffin shot one field basket.

McGiffin also did some exceptional work in his foul shooting. He was able to make thirteen out of seventeen free throws count. Captain Hermann of Colgate was by far the most outstanding player on the court. He made eight field goals, while Cashion and Livermore accounted for four baskets from the floor. Livermore also did some good work with free throws, making nine out of a possible thirteen.

About the middle of the second half Marquard was substituted for Hatch and from then until the end of the game he made three very nice baskets. This was Marquard's first collegiate game and his sensational shooting comes as a surprise. In this half Warren was substituted for Doane.

This is the first time that Coach Carroll had ever sent a Hamilton team against a team from his Alma Mater and the showing that the team made does credit to to his training. The varsity showed a great improvement over the work done in the R. P. I. game on the 13th of the month.

What chance have you got against him?

IT was a cynic who said: "Some men go to college. Other men study."

A slander! But yet there probably are college men whose bills for midnight oil are not large.

And there are men who left school in the lower grades who, along with a hard day's work, put in long hours of study—spurred on by a dream and a longing.

Look out for them.

The achievements of non-college men in business suggest an important fact. Success seems to depend, not so much on the place where a man studies, as on the earnestness of the student.

But, granting equal earnestness and ability, it is still true that the college man has the advantage.

Regular hours for study and lecture, the use of library and laboratory, the guidance of professors, contact with men of the same age and aspirations—all these will count in his favor, if he makes the most of them.

A big "if." The new year is a good time to start making it a reality.

ELIHU ROOT SPEAKS AT ALUMNI DINNER

Greatest Things a Young Man Learns in College He Absorbs Without Knowing It

Hon. Elihu Root, '64, addressed the fifty-fifth annual dinner of the New York Alumni Association, held Friday, Jan. 19th, at the Hotel Savoy in New York.

"The real benefit of the college for the boy is not realized at the moment," said Mr. Root, "but as men grow older, and live less exclusively in the future and measurably more in the past, they learn what inestimable wealth has he, who, blessed by a host of memories, preserves the generous and noble standards created in him without his knowledge.

"Probably we all forget the greater part of what we have learned in college, but the things we can't lose are the influences upon character that go with us to our dying day.

"Physical force, backed by the accumulated wealth of centuries of productivity, have failed to bring happiness to mankind. Misery, poverty and distress have followed its utmost use, to happiness, through the spiritual reenthronement of those powers of civilization that depend upon what men really are, upon the heart and soul and character of men. All the world over mankind is longing that the day will be speeded when nobility of character and spiritual power may control the vast and complicated machinery of life.

"It is, first of all, our colleges that must teach the qualities upon which the future of our beloved country depends. The general, the statesman the man of affairs, all pass away and are forgotten. But to have builded oneself into the structure of these undying institutions, to have aided the development of these priceless possessions of civiliation, is to have lived not in vain, and it is to have lived in perpetuity."

Chester S. Lord, '73, Chancellor of the University of the State of New York, and President of the New York State Alumni Association, was toastmaster.

Other speakers were President F. C. Ferry, Frank P. Graves, Commissioner of Education of New York State, and Charles B. Alexander, member of the State Board of Regents.

FROSH DEFEAT ASSUMPTION

Overcome 17-13 Lead—Fredenburgh and Ireland High Scorers—Played in K. of C. Gym

Saturday night at the K. of C. Gym in Utica the freshman basketball team defeated the Assumption High School team by the score of 35 to 29. Although the count stood 17-13 against them at the end of the first half, the first year team came back in the second period and nearly tripled their score This was the second game of the season for the freshmen. Before Christmas vacation they defeated the New Hartford High School team which is coached by James V. Davis, '22.

The game was a tight struggle especially in the last half. The teams played nip and tuck until the frosh managed to step away from their opponents. In the first half, the College team seemed to be lost and did not get going until the Assumptions had dropped the ball in for a comfortable score. The frosh lacked the teamwork needed and the breaks were against them in their shots. In the second period, with Payne and Marquardt in the line-up, the frosh started in with a rush to overcome the lead. They evened the score but the Assupmtion team hung on and first one team would lead and then the other.

Fredenburgh led in the scoring for the frosh with five field goals. Ireland, at center, was next with three The freshmen did not register all Assumption's fouls in the point column for they talied only nine out of eighteen while their oppoents chalked up eleven out of fourteen fouls. For Assumption, Zoller at forward scored the most baskets, but Hosp at center came close behind with three field goals and ten foul shots.

GABOON AND LIT TO BE OUT AT PROM

Prom Number of Gaboon—New Policy for Lit

The third issue of the Royal Gaboon and the second issue of Hamilton Literary Magazine will appear during Prom Week.

The Royal Gaboon will contain much of interest to all prom-goers. Much of the material has been contributed by the underclasses. This is a favorable augury for the future success of the Gaboon.

The second issue of Lit will also appear during Prom Week. The response of the alumni to the appeal in this year's first number was encouraging, and has enabled Lit to be continued. More subscriptions are still greatly needed before it will become a certain sucess. The aim of the present board will be a much-needed development along two lines: a more interesting and complete alumni department, and a discussion of vital Hamilton problems in the editorial columns.

The editorials in the coming issue will be along these lines.

ENTRANCE AT THE POINT

Carpe Diem

Pills Saunders went off on a moral holiday this week. He gave a quiz in one of his courses and actually one of the men in the class passed it.

Rip Raitt signed up for the course in the appreciation of art but is seriously regretting it now. He thought that the course included a season ticket to the burlesque in Utica for first hand information and inspection.

Little Greek was stopped by the State Police while walking up Hill the other day and asked for his peddler's license.

Carpe wonders if this guy what begs money every now and then for relief work is hired by the Psi U's to pay for their coal.

Cheer up, little one, if Carpe hasn't taken a crack at you yet, it will before long.

A visitor on the Hill last week stopped in at the Musical Club rehearsal and wanted to know if there was anybody left at the Theta Delt House. He said he had something to bring before the Chapter. Leaders Fitch and Langtry suspended the discord and held goat. They were all there except one—he forgot to try out when the trials were held.

There was a riot in the Chem Lab the other day. Some kind soul borrowed Prof. Erskine's text book and he was unable to give his customary

Some one pulled a cork from an ink bottle in Bobby Rudd's class last week and Bobby, forgetting himself momentarily, smacked his lips and started to reach as if for a glass.

Several of the socially inclined student on the Hill are having two pairs of skates apiece sharpened. It is time for the good skates of Clinton to show their form on the ice.

The Department has not gotten out his old white high-boy yet. Cal heard that the Beta Kaps were selling tickets for space on their lawn to watch him spill at the turn, so he is fooling them.

After the report that Bibs had just paid seven hundred and fifty dollars for a collection of foreign books, Johnnie Coe was seen making a beeline for the library carrying his collection of bound copies of "La Vie Parisienne." He seemed quite disappointed that he didn't receive anything for them.

We can't understand why Alec Woollcott was invited to give a Myers lecture on Five Famous French Women, when we have in our midst, the scent-sitive and experienced Lanrowitz. Why not have Lanny give a talk on some of his artiste friends of this summer in Paris?

Rumor hath it that Supe and Patton have had a scrap since Patton bought his flivver. Supe claims that Patton is taking unfair advantage of him. Patton, however, claims that everything is fair in love and war.

We were relieved to hear that the cause of the water waste has at last been found. It was suspected that the eighteenth amendment was the cause of it. Water is so refreshing in the morning.

"Suppose the next thing on the program will be a tea drinking bout between the Ladies' Sewing Circle and the 'varsity," remarked the Old Grad upon hearing of the entrance of Smith College into intercollegite debating.

Two sure ways of passing the exams—put everything down that you don't know and write so it can't be read.

It is remarkable to notice how popular the profs are after class now.

Cheer up, my boy, if you are tired now wait until after Prom!

shots. Marquardt's long heave plunged through the ring for a score at the end of the first half.

Callagan, known ever after on this Hill as "the Rochester redhead," finished a plucky fight with five field goals to his credit. Several times he sneaked under the Hamilton basket and scored with great nonchalance. Hamilton sent in substitutes in the last minutes. The line-up and score:

on the run and a strong attack netted two goals, both caged by Watson Thompson. The ringing of the bell ending the period cut off a rally which might well have produced a third score. Both of the Hamilton scores were made when the regular Princeton line-up was on the ice.

In the third period, the Hamilton defense seemed to give way, while Princeton, by fast skating and good passing and shooting, made five more goals. The long trip made by the team began to tell in this final period.

Many Hamilton alumni were present at the game.
